How to get there:

There are two routes to be taken to the area. One is a bit shorter but requires more gravel road driving. The roads are however in good condition. It is recommended to phone before traveling to the Hunting Ranch.

Option 1. From Windhoek you take the (B1) for 70 km to Okahandja from Okahandja you have to take the (B1) for 178 km towards Otjiwarongo than with the same (B1) for 110 km to Otavi. At Otavi you have to turn off with the (B8) to Grootfontein for 96 km. When passing through Grootfontein on the main road towards Rundu, you will get Bank Windhoek on your left hand side and then you must turn in to the right at the next turn-off towards the Grootfontein Airport. From the turn-off you follow the road for 6 km until you get a turn-off to the left, indicating the (D2836) road which will bring you after 54 km to the Entrance of Bornholm-Ovisume, here you have to turn right and after 6 km you will reach us. (~ 560 km/347 miles)

Option 2. From Windhoek you take the (B1) for 70 km to Okahandja. From Okahandja you have to take the (B1) for 148 km towards Otjiwarongo approximately 28 km before Otjiwarongo you will get a turn-off to your right indicating C22 towards Okakarara. When coming to Okakarara you stay on the tar road, which will end approximately 6 km after Okakarara. You will stay on this road the (C42) for approximately 100km until you reach the village of Okongoro. At Okongoro you turn left and follow the (D2836) road which will bring you after 11 km to the entrance of Bornholm-Ovisume, here you have to turn left and after 6 km you will reach us. (~ 450 km/280 miles)
